location location location.....

Famous as an international centre for contemporary art and culture, the county of Kilkenny is also located in an ideal central location - providing a perfect stopover for travellers from Dublin and Cork, or Rosslare and the West.

The city itself is steeped in history. Dominated by superb ancient buildings culminating in the magnificent Kilkenny Castle, it brims with character. Winding slipways lead from bustling shopping streets to quiet corners. Exceptionally rich in heritage and filled with dramatic landscapes and historical treasures.

The city's compact streets are filled with an eclectic mix of shopping, from high street names to designer boutiques. There are so many ways to relax in Kilkenny, some guests prefer to pamper themselves in our Spa but for others it's about a day outdoors in an idyllic setting, with numerous world renowned golf courses and beautiful walking routes, to a day at the races - you'll find what your looking for in Kilkenny.
